This guide was developed by volunteers to assist individuals and families with preparing to respond effectively in the event of a raid by Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE).

While it is our hope that you never have to use your plan, it is a good practice to have one in place to help reduce the stress of the unexpected.

Keep a copy of this plan in your emergency supply kit or another safe place where you can access it in the event of an emergency.

NOTE: The information contained in this guide is for general informational purposes only. It is not intended to serve as legal advice and it does not substitute for legal counsel.

For information and advice about specific cases, you should consult with an immigration attorney.
BASIC RIGHTS

All people in the U.S., whether citizen or non-citizen, have certain rights under the U.S. Constitution and other laws.

- You have the right to refuse consent for immigration or the police to search yourself, your car or your home.
- You have the right to remain silent.
- If you are not under arrest, you have the right to calmly leave.
- If you are not a U.S. citizen, you have the right to call the consulate of your home country. Immigration and police must let your consulate visit or speak with you.
- You have the right to speak to an attorney before answering any questions.
- You may say, “I will remain silent until I speak to an attorney.”
- You do not have to sign anything that you do not understand or wish to sign.
- You have the right to a copy of all any papers related to any enforcement efforts.

YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

- Do not interfere with or obstruct the police or ICE.
- Do not lie or give false documents.
- Prepare yourself and your family in case you are arrested.
- Remember the details of the encounter and document the details of the encounter for your records. Consider emailing the details to yourself or a trusted ally or relative.
If ICE Comes to your home

Do not let officers into your home unless you see a valid warrant. Opening the door (without a valid warrant signed by a judge) may be considered giving ICE “consent” or permission to enter.

Keep the door closed and ask if they are Immigration agents, or from ICE. Although opening the door does not give the agents permission to come inside, it is safer to speak to ICE through a closed door.

Ask the agents what they are there for.

If the agents want to enter, ask them if they have a warrant signed by a judge.

Ask them to slide the search warrant under the door or through a window.

If ICE agents do not have a warrant signed by a Judge, you may refuse to open the door or let them in. An administrative warrant of removal from immigration authorities is not enough.

Look for: a judge’s signature, your exact address, your correct name, and the specific areas to be searched.

Look at the top and at the signature line to see if it was issued by a court and signed by a judge. Only a court/judge warrant is enough for entry into your premises. One issued by DHS or ICE and signed by a DHS or ICE employee is not.

If ICE or the police do not have this, then you do not have to open the door.

State: “I do not consent to your entry.”

If ICE has a warrant

Remember you have the right to remain silent.

- Ask to speak to a lawyer.
- Observe whether the official searches any other areas that are not listed in the warrant.
- Get a receipt for any property taken by the official.
- If the agents don’t speak your language, ask for an interpreter.
- Once they are inside, ICE will likely ask for documents of everyone inside.
- Advise others inside to stay calm and not run or hide.
- Do not reveal your DACA status and do not tell ICE your immigration status or where you were born.
| If ICE enters without a warrant | • If agents force their way in anyway, do not attempt to resist. If you wish to exercise your rights, state: “I do not consent to your entry or to your search of these premises. I am exercising my right to remain silent. I wish to speak with a lawyer as soon as possible,” and remain silent.
• Everyone in the residence may also exercise the right to remain silent.
• Request the names and badge numbers of the officers and say that you did not “consent” to a search.
• Write down the names, addresses and phone numbers of anyone who witnessed the incident. |
|---|---|
| If ICE comes to your workplace | • Immigration must have a warrant signed by a judge or the employer’s permission to enter your workplace. If it is a public place, they do not need a warrant.
• Do not interfere with ICE agents during a workplace raid. Doing so may expose you to criminal charges.
• Stay calm. Remain silent. Do not run. Running may be viewed as an admission that you have something to hide. |
| If ICE stops you on the street or in a public place | • If an immigration officer stops you on the street and does not have a warrant, they may not arrest you unless they have evidence that you are a non-citizen.
• Do not tell ICE your immigration status or where you were born.
• If asked, give your name, but know you still have the right to remain silent about everything else. ICE can use anything you say against you.
• Do not reveal your DACA status.
• Do not carry with you any documents from your country of origin or false documents.
• Stay calm and do not run. Remain silent.
• Use your phone to take photos and notes about the stop.
• You have the right to speak with an attorney.
• Do not sign forms you don’t understand or don’t want to sign. |
| If ICE stops you while driving/or if you are a passenger | Remain silent.
• Show the police your drivers’ license.
• If asked, show your car registration and proof of insurance. But know you still have the right to remain silent about everything else. Immigration/ICE can use anything you say against you.
• You have the right to refuse to give your consent for a search of yourself or your car.

Stay calm and do not run.
• Use your phone to take photos and notes about the stop, and stay calm and do not run.
• You have the right to speak with an attorney.
• Do not sign forms you don’t understand or don’t want to sign. |
If YOU are detained

Stay calm and do not run.
• REMAIN SILENT, or tell the ICE agent that they want to remain silent.
• You have the right to refuse to answer any question.
• You don’t have to reveal your immigration status.
• Don’t lie – just stay silent!
• Ask to speak with a lawyer.
• Find out the name and phone number of a reliable immigration attorney and keep this information with you at all times.
• DO NOT sign any documents without first speaking with a lawyer.

DO NOT carry false documents.
• Presenting false documents is a crime.
• False documents include both fake papers and real, government-issued identification with someone else’s information.
• DO NOT carry passports or identification from your home country. If you do, the government can use this information in a deportation proceeding.

If a FAMILY MEMBER is detained
• Know their “alien registration number” (“A” number) if they have one, and write it down someplace at home where their family members know where to find it.
• Advise family members who do not want to be questioned by ICE to stay away from the place where the raid occurred or where a detained person is being held.

How to locate a family detained by ICE
• Family members or trusted supporters can use the ICE detainee locator: https://locator.ice.gov/odls/homePage.do
• Be sure to get a copy of the detainee’s A-Number (alien registration number found on immigration documents from ICE) if they have one.

United States Magistrate Judge
EXAMPLE OF ADMINISTRATIVE WARRANT
NOT VALID: DO NOT LET ICE ENTER

Because this warrant is not signed by a judge (the text under the signature line does not give the signer's identity as a judge), it is not sufficient reason for ICE to enter the premise.
To be completed by ICE officer executing the warrant:
Name of alien being removed:

Port, date, and manner of removal:

Photograph of alien removed

Right index fingerprint of alien removed

(Signature and title of INS official taking print)

Departure witnessed by: (Signature and title of INS official)

If actual departure is not witnessed, fully identify source or means of verification of departure:

If self-removal (self-deportation), pursuant to 8 CFR 241.7, check here. □

Departure Verified by: (Signature and title of INS official)
Do not sign anything without first talking to a lawyer. You may be signing away your right to see a lawyer or a judge.

Voluntary Departure

Do not take “voluntary departure” (that is, do not agree to leave the United States) without first talking to a lawyer. Signing a voluntary departure agreement means that you won’t get a hearing, you will have to leave the U.S., and you may never be allowed to enter the U.S. again or get legal immigration status.

Stipulated Orders of Removal

Do not sign “stipulated orders of removal” without first talking to a lawyer. Signing a stipulated order means that you waive your rights to a hearing before a judge and serves as a final order of removal (deportation) signed by the judge.

Rights

You have the right to call an attorney, your family or a trusted ally if you are detained.

You have the right to be visited by an attorney in detention (Immigration jail). You must hire one or find someone who will represent you for free. (Immigration/ICE should give you a list of groups you can call that may provide free or low-cost legal advice or representation.)

If you see a judge before you can get legal advice, you should ask the judge for more time to find a lawyer.

You have the right to contact your consulate. Telephone numbers to your consulate are posted in the jail or you can ask the deportation officer for a list. Your Consul may help you obtain a lawyer.

In most cases, Immigration/ICE must decide within 48 hours whether to put you into immigration proceedings (in front of a judge), and whether to keep you in custody or to release you on bond. After 72 hours, Immigration must give you a Notice to Appear (NTA). This is the notice that provides you with the information about your hearing before an Immigration Judge.

In most cases, you have the right to ask to be released from detention by paying a bond, or to ask for a bond hearing in front of a judge. (Bond is an amount of money paid to the government to guarantee that you will attend future court hearings).

If you have to leave the U.S., try to speak with an immigration lawyer before leaving. If you leave, you may not be allowed to come back into the country for a certain number of years. It is important you know this before you leave, because if you come back earlier than you’re allowed to, you can be arrested for having committed a serious crime.

If you are Afraid to Return to your Home Country

If you are afraid to return to your home country, notify your deportation officer and the court immediately. You may be eligible to file a claim for asylum or other relief.

If you have been convicted of any criminal offenses, it is extremely important to contact an immigration lawyer that is experienced in matters involving immigration consequences of criminal convictions. If you have a criminal record/conviction, get a copy of your certified transcript from the criminal court.

If you are not given a hearing before an immigration judge, find out why and let your lawyer know immediately.

Notes
Create a “Go Bag” of important papers box for all of your important documents that you can grab in an emergency.

Accordion file
Keep all your most important documents in a single accordion file in a file cabinet (a bright color will make it easy to spot), so you can grab everything quickly in an emergency.

Dry spaces
Consider your home’s location when you pick the right spot to store your key documents: Don’t put them in the basement or attic.

A known location
Let your family know where your key documents are located.

Contents
- A completed Copy of this Emergency Guide
- Birth and marriage certificates
- Social Security cards
- Work cards/EAD
- Copies of immigration related IDs
- Passports and copies of IDs
- Checkbooks
- Debit cards and rarely used credit cards
- Insurance policies
- Vehicle titles
- Tax returns and investment documents
- Legal documents like a will or settlement
- Health records and bills (copies of insurance cards, immunizations records)
- Powers of Attorney
- Childcare directives

Digitize What You Can
Your important papers box should only be for documents that must be in hard copy. For documents that don’t explicitly need to be paper, scan them to your digital library.

Always Return Them
When you do need an important document, make sure that you put it back as soon as you are done with it. Don’t place it on a counter top or other location. Always put it immediately back in your one place.

Keep Them Safe
Keep your important papers file in a safe place. It should be separate from your normal every day files. Don’t store it in a conspicuous place where it might be taken with other valuables.
COMMUNICATION PLAN

Your family or supporters may not be together during immigration action (a raid, an arrest) so it is important to plan beforehand.

• Know all of the full names, birth dates, and social security numbers, A-numbers, or ITINS for everyone in your family. Have this information memorized or written down somewhere safe.

• Know where to locate all of your family members in an emergency. Know how to find them or contact them at home, work, school, or other places where your family spends time.

• If you cannot meet at home, identify a location for your family to meet in an emergency. Make sure everyone in the family know this meeting spot.

• If you can’t get in touch with each other, identify someone outside of the family whom you could contact. Make sure everyone in the family knows this person and how to reach him/her. Or, activate a shared email address or other social media account that can be accessed from anywhere in the world by your immediate family as an alternate way to communicate in an emergency.

IF YOU HAVE CHILDREN WHO ARE DEPENDENTS

Talk to Your Children About Your Plan

Without worrying them, assure your children that they will be cared for if for some reason you are unable to care for them, even for a short period of time. Let them know who you have identified to be their temporary caregiver.

Decide Who Can Care for Your Children if You Are Unable To

Talk to the people you would want to care for your children if you are unable to and make sure they know they will be listed as emergency contacts.

• Memorize their phone numbers and have your children memorize them too.

• Make sure your children know who can pick them from up school, who cannot pick them up from school, and who will care for them.

• Your child’s school may only release your child to adults you designate. Therefore, make sure to regularly update all school, after-school, day care, summer camp, and other programs’ emergency contact sheets and release forms to include the names of those who can and cannot pick up your children.

• Make sure the people who can pick up and care for your children are up to date on your child’s school location and locations of their after-school activities.

Record Your Child’s Medical Conditions and Medications

• Make sure to write down any medical conditions or allergies your child has, any medications that your child takes, as well as doctor and health insurance information. Keep a copy of this information in your important documents file.

• Give a copy to your child’s school and the adult you designate to care for your children. Let your child know where to find this information if you are not around.
Temporary power of Attorney

A temporary power of attorney for your child allows you to designate another adult to make decisions on your behalf for your children. It is temporary and does not require you to give up your parental or custodial rights. It should be done ahead of time in preparation as part of your safety plan.

You can designate and document someone you trust with Power of Attorney to make financial, legal or childcare decisions in your absence. You can designate this person to: care for your children; make decisions for your children; to handle your finances; to manage business decisions, use your money to pay your rent or mortgage, or pay for your legal and other expenses. It must be notarized.

Caregiver’s Authorization Affidavit

As an alternative you can sign a Caregiver’s Authorization Affidavit form to give to your child’s school or health care provider so a non-parent relative can enroll your child in public school, make school-related medical decisions, and make other important decisions on your child’s behalf if you are unable to. A template is in this booklet. A Caregiver’s Authorization Affidavit does not affect your rights as your child’s parent or legal custodian- you still have custody and control of your child. It should be done ahead of time in preparation as part of your safety plan.

Note to families

When parents are detained the burden of care falls to family, friends, schools and other organizations. In cases where there is no caregiver or family member to care for your child if you are detained, your child may be removed into temporary custody of CPS/foster care.

MAKE SURE YOUR CHILDREN ALL HAVE PASSPORTS

If your child was born in the United States

Register your U.S. child’s birth with your home country’s government (for example, with your country’s consulate) if your child was born in the United States. This may grant your child benefits, including citizenship in your home country in some cases.

If your child was born in your home country

Check with your embassy or consulate for more information on obtaining a passport from their home country.
As part of safety planning, you may wish to have a financial safety/emergency plan. You will need to consider how to handle your financial affairs in the short term while you may be held in detention, as well as long term in case you are deported. If you have a bank account, a car, a house, and/or other financial and legal matters, you may also consider preparing a legal document, called a “Limited or Special Power of Attorney for Financial Matters” that allows a trusted family member or a close friend to temporarily handle your financial affairs while you are detained.

Every family’s financial assets and situations are different. Below are general areas that may apply to most families:

Savings

If you are arrested and detained it is important that your family has money to live on while you are unavailable. It is very important that you and your family members save enough money so that they can pay rent and buy food and other essentials if you are detained and unable to work.

Bank Account

If one member in the family has a bank account and they are detained, it is important that both others in your family have access to it or a trusted ally has permission and knows how to access the bank account.

Individuals will want to work this financial issue out now. Individuals can consider a joint account or asking the bank if they have a limited power of attorney form that they recommend for access to the bank account if the account holder is not available. (Banks often have their own power of attorney forms.)

Pay Check

It is important that a family member or close friend can pick-up the last paycheck of the family member who is arrested and detained. Individuals will want to find out if their spouse/partner or other adult can pick up their pay check for them. If not, they should consider filling out a “Sample Letter Regarding Pay Checks.”

Car

If individuals own cars, check with the local Department of Motor Vehicle (DMV) to see if the DMV has a specific Power of Attorney that they need to sign in order for someone else (their agent) to sell their car for them. If the DMV does not have a specific Power of Attorney form, this is a topic that they may want to discuss with a lawyer.

Have an Extra Set of Car and House Keys

It is important that a family member or a trusted supporter has a set of house and car keys. If you are detained, they will need access to the house as well as access to the car, especially if the car is located at your worksite.
LEGAL SERVICES IN CALIFORNIA

If you do not already have an immigration lawyer, find a lawyer who specializes in deportation defense who may be able to represent you if you are detained. In your initial meeting, ask him/her to provide you with a Representation Agreement form (G-28). You can sign a copy of the G-28 and leave it with the lawyer. Keep another signed copy and place it with your Emergency Information Forms in case you are detained. Memorize the name and phone number of your lawyer.

Ready California

Ready California is a cross-sector collaborative effort to support organizations providing information and legal services to immigrant community members so they can prepare for and respond to emerging opportunities and challenges.

Warning!

Protect Yourself from Fraud! Only a licensed attorney or accredited representative is authorized and qualified to assist you with your immigration case.

Do not hire anyone who:

- Refuses to give you a written contract
- Charges you for blank immigration forms
- Promises you a good result because of their special contacts at Immigration
- Pretends to be a qualified lawyer or bonded immigration consultant
- Asks you to lie on a form or sign a blank document
- Charges you to “get on a waiting list” or “put your application in line”

There is no list. There is no line.

If you suspect fraud, report it to your consulate or the police, or contact the Federal Trade Commission to file a complaint in English or Spanish at 877-FTC-HELP (877-382-4357).

To print at home, use heavy weight paper, or card stock. Cut out the cards along the dotted lines. If you’re unable to print on both sides, you can simply fold on the center line to make a 2-sided card.

If you use a professional printer, we suggest you print 2-sided cards with white text on red card stock with rounded corners.
